Support for survivors of rape and sexual abuse

Post: Trauma Therapist - York & North Yorkshire

Salary: £ 14.04 per hour / £5,840 per annum

Contract: 12 months initially (possibility of becoming permanent subject to funding)

Hours 8 hours per week

Do you want to help survivors of sexual violence rebuild their lives?

Due to increased demand for our specialist services since the start of the pandemic and following receipt of additional funding, Survive is recruiting an additional Trauma Therapist to work with survivors of rape, sexual assault and child sexual abuse.

The post holder will be based at our York office. The role is initially for 12 months, however, could possibly become permanent subject to funding. The post holder will work with adult survivors of sexual violence who self-refer to Survive or are referred by partner agencies.

As a Trauma therapist, you will deliver trauma-informed therapeutic services to adult survivors of sexual violence who have already completed 10 weeks of stabilisation counselling with Survive.

You will deliver up to 20 sessions of trauma therapy to clients face-to-face, online or over the telephone. You will work with survivors to reduce the day-to-day impact of their trauma.

You will also conduct initial assessments with clients waiting to assess 10 weeks of stabilisation counselling.

Successful candidates will need to undergo DBS checks (costs covered by Survive) and will be expected to deliver support sessions face-to-face, online or over the telephone.

Survive is pleased to be a Disability Confident employer:

- challenging attitudes towards disability
- increasing understanding of disability
- removing barriers to disabled people and those with long-term health conditions
- ensuring that disabled people have the opportunities to fulfil their potential and realise their aspirations
